

FIRST JUNIOR FELLOW WORKSHOP OF THE KFG

Contested visions of social Europe(s) in the 1970s

ORGANIZED BY JUNIOR FELLOW DR. BENJAMIN THOMAS

11.45–12.30 INTRODUCTION

Benjamin Thomas (University of Nottingham)

Contested visions of a social Europe: Particularism and universalism among alternatives to neoliberalism

13.00–14.30 Michele Di Donato (University of Roma Tre)

Conflicting globalisms. Helmut Schmidt and the socialist debates on Europe and the international economic order during the 1970s

Josef Hien (Mid Sweden University)

Christian Democrats and their vision of a social Europe in the 1970s and 1980s

14.30–15.00 COFFEE BREAK

15.00–16.30 Aleksandra Komornicka (University of Maastricht)

The early end of the Cold War: Socialist Poland's economic policymaking and the vision of peaceful coexistence in the 1970s

Fabio Wolkenstein (University of Vienna)

"Friedrich Hayek is not a member of the ÖVP!": How German and Austrian Christian democrats resisted neoliberalism in the 1970s and 80s – and eventually stopped resisting

16.45–17.30 CONCLUDING DISCUSSION

18.00 DINNER

Kolleg-
Forschungsgruppe
Universalism and Particularism in European Contemporary History

* Participation is possible online and in person
(Collegium Carolinum, Seminarraum, Hochstraße 8)

Registration via email: kfg20@lrz.uni-muenchen.de

Dinner: Wirtshaus in der Au, Lilienstraße 51

Funded by

Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft
German Research Foundation